

Gold went in, then came back out

US trade on the balance plane, monthly average within each phase.
Above the diagonal the United States is a net importer

South Africa and Hong Kong belong in the right-hand panel by size but trade gold with the United States in one direction only, so they have no position on it